WORLD URBAN PARKS Design Contest

Join PARKITECTURE The Ultimate Design Contest!

Are you ready to unleash your creativity and make a lasting impact on the world of parks and urban landscapes? Look no further! PARKITECTURE, the prestigious International Design Contest created by World Urban Parks, is here to ignite your imagination and showcase your talent to a global audience.

Participation in PARKITECTURE comes with the chance to win a staggering prize pool of more than $50,000! Yes, you read that right! We believe in recognizing and rewarding excellence and want to ensure that your hard work and talent are celebrated in the most meaningful way possible.

We aim to set a global context, identifying strategies applicable worldwide regardless of wealth through community participation. By addressing shared global challenges, such as the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and the New Urban Agenda (NUA), we promote urban parks as transformative solutions within our social and natural landscapes.

Don't miss your chance to be part of this global phenomenon. Join PARKITECTURE today and let your design transcend boundaries, captivate hearts, and shape the future!
